BASA Bulletin 7

September 2008

The Finals are Here!

Yes—the finals are nearly here, and another season is drawing to its conclusion. It has been an exciting season with the make-up of the top four teams not settled until last week. The Assassins and the Bears are tied at the top of the table, and last week the Camels defeated the top team (Assassins). This newsletter is to provide some details of the finals and end-of-season celebrations, and inform you of some changes for next season.

Firstly, there will be three finals series:

- Mixed Competition finals; 30th September
- Men's Checking Comp Finals 23rd September; and
- Challenge Cup finals for the bottom 4 Mixed Teams; 30th September

See the Website for when your team is playing.
